WHAT DOES HOSTING A QUARTERLY ROUND TABLE LUNCHEON LOOK LIKE…?

Date & Time: This a quarterly event held at Noon, usually lasting about an hour, although it can last a bit longer. Dates are selected at the beginning of each year, one per quarter, usually March, June, August & November. Dates are reserved on a first come first serve basis.

Purpose: A business networking event. It also provides an opportunity to share current business successes & challenges and even showcase your business if you choose to.

Location: May be held at your place of business or another location to accommodate 12-18 attendees.

Food & Drink: A light lunch & beverage

NNACC Provides: Advertising for the event: Event flyer, social media promotion & email invitations/reminders. All advertising will include your name/logo as the event sponsor. Provide event organization & coordination.

Host Business Provides: Any food or beverage to be served (from simple to elaborate – food choice is up to the hosts discretion & budget).

Options: Provide business cards, flyers & information about your business. Offer a tour of your business...?

Please contact me with questions or concerns.
Thank you for your support and we look forward to working with you!
